ITINERARY^

Albany Watercolour Painting Workshop with Jude Scott

February 15 – 19, 2024

Day 1, Thursday Feb 15

You will be provided with a gate code and will be able enter Camp Quaranup, Quaranup Road, Vancouver Peninsula, Albany from 4pm onwards. Settle in and it's a meet and greet with complimentary bubbles with dinner around 6pm. If it's cool we'll get the fire pit going.

Day 2, Friday Feb 16

The Uredale Point (former Point Possession) Heritage Trail is one of the south west's truly special walks. It takes in two beaches, a short, steep climb and the most rewarding view over the peninsula, the port of Albany and beautiful beaches. The inspiration and sketches from this walk kick off a day of watercolour demonstrations and critiques with Jude.

Day 3, Sat Feb 17

Painting with Jude continues in the spacious hall in the old hospital. Explore the Quaranup site, the lovingly restored stone and weatherboard buildings and coastline colours. The Lookout trail provides walkers another option for a sunset view.

Day 4, Sun Feb 18

Art sessions with Jude continue all day with the option to explore of some of the fascinating historic features of the site such as the wreck of the Cheyne II Whale Chaser that sits in shallow water just offshore.

Day 5, Mon Feb 19

An easy morning enjoying the birdsong and views with check out by 10am.

^Itineraries are provided as a guide. We reserve the right to vary the itinerary.
